“Goodbye Seniors”

by

Sharon McHenry

To all graduating Seniors at Camarillo High
At last this is the time when we say goodbye.

One thing that this school surely won't forget
Is that our class has been the best yet.

When we were Freshmen we were puzzled and lost
And on Slave Day it was fun to see how much we cost.

When we were Sophomores this school was a bore
But now we won't be seeing it anymore.

And when we were Juniors we were off on our own
And we also made many trips to see Mr. Johnstone.

When we went to the nurse to say we were hurt
We most often got sent to see Uncle Bert.

There were parties, games and dances and such
But I don't think we'll be missing them much.

When you needed to go to the bathroom, and it couldn't wait
There were passes and permits but opps!!! too late.

You girls would wear dresses, all crisp and new
And see one just like it on the girl next to you.

And when the boys first started to date
“Be home at eleven” was a phrase they would hate.

Report cards, tests, finals and those tardy slips
Are just a few things I'm sure you won't miss.
